

YORBA LINDA HIGH SCHOOL

Activities and Events for April 10, 2025

The theatre department will hold auditions for our Musical Theatre class on Monday, April 21st, in the theater. All information can be found on our website, ylhstheatre.org. Please see Ms. Petz, Leilah Huttner, or Raven Hale for more information.

Attention Seniors: A friendly reminder that in order to fulfill your graduation requirements, you must complete a total of 40 community service hours. The YLHS library offers volunteer opportunities – visit the library for more details. Additionally, there are several community events that provide great opportunities to earn your hours. For more information, please check your school's website or stop by the College and Career Center to speak with Mrs. Ornelas. Don't wait – get started on those hours today!

Attention Seniors: Planning to Attend Santiago Canyon College This Fall? If so, don't miss out on our Early Welcome field trip! This is a great chance to explore the campus, meet with a college counselor, register for class, and get a head start on your college journey. To attend, you must have: Applied to Santiago Canyon College and completed the orientation. Permission slips are available now. If you need help with your application or want more information, please stop by the College and Career Center.

Mustangs, summer school registration is closing soon. If you are in jeopardy of getting a D or failing a class and want to remediate the class over summer, please see your counselor. The last day for summer school registration is Friday.

Attention YLHS students! ASB applications are now live on the YLHS website! If you're interested in making a difference and being part of our student leadership, be sure to check it out and apply. Don't miss your chance to get involved! Applications are due by April 18th!

Seniors, be sure to purchase your Senior Brunch and Knott's Day tickets before they sell out! Brunch is at Coyote Hills on June 9th at 10:00 a.m. and is $45. Knott's is on June 10th and is $50. Make sure to come share this experience with your Senior Class! Don't forget your permission slips at the time of purchase, tickets are sold at the Finance Office!

Check the school website (ylhs.org) for updates.
